REMARKS.

1. The program, except the evening and Sunday sessions, is of a purely business character.
2. Any business not mentioned on program can be introduced under the head of "new business" found in each session.
3. Should there be too much business for the day sessions, the sermons in the evenings can be dispensed with and the time devoted to business.

A. D. GNAGEY, Sec. Ex. Com.

The man who is least willing to practice is sure to find the most fault with the preaching.

People who are always telling their troubles are never at a loss to know what to talk about.

J. B. BRINTON, Agt.,
Erie Ry., Ashland, O.

If our repentance and faith are genuine, and we are willing to make a full surrender to Christ; or if we have been quickened and made alive by the Word of God, which is the seed of the new birth, and are "baptized in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost," which is the initiatory rite to bring us into the church; and not only into the church, but into Christ, and "Christ is formed within, the hope of glory," we can then stand "justified before God, and have peace with him through our Lord Jesus Christ."
